Cable and Wireless International Finance B.V., Amsterdam Half-year Report September 30, 2011

2.4 General notes to the financial statements

2.4.1 General information

Cable and Wireless International Finance B.V. ("the Company") was incorporated with limited liability under the laws of The Netherlands on September 28, 1989. The registered office of the Company is in Amsterdam, The Netherlands. The objective of the Company is to act as a finance company.

2.4.2 Group structure

The Company is a subsidiary of Cable & Wireless Limited, London, United Kingdom, which owns 100% of the Company's shares. The Company's figures are taken up in the consolidated accounts of Cable & Wireless Communications Plc, London, United Kingdom. The consolidated accounts of Cable & Wireless Communications Plc can be obtained from their website: www.cwc.com.

2.4.3 Related parties

The Company is engaged in the financing of its shareholder out of bond loans secured by its shareholder. The conditions of these loans are all at-arms-length. Please refer to the Notes to the balance sheet items for further details.

The Company acts as a group financing company. As such the Company is economically and organizationally linked to the ultimate parent company, Cable & Wireless Communications Plc. Therefore the solvency of the parent company and that of the group should be included when assessing the Company's solvency.

Amsterdam
Half-year Report September 30, 2011

2.4.4 Accounting policies

The principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below:

Functional and presentation currency

The functional currency of the ultimate Parent Company, Cable & Wireless Communications Plc, and the majority of trading and financing companies of the Group, of which the Company is a member, is the US dollar. In respect of the Company, the directors consider the US dollar to be the functional currency reflecting the economic effects of the underlying transactions, events and conditions for the Company. The Company therefore presents its financial statements in US Dollars. The Company's presentation currency is also the USD.

Basis of preparation

The Company qualifies as a large sized company and the financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the Netherlands and comply with the financial reporting requirements included in Part 9 of Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code. The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention and presented in US Dollar ("USD"). Assets and liabilities are stated at nominal value, unless otherwise stated. If deemed necessary, a provision is deducted from the nominal amount of accounts receivable.

Comparison previous year

The accounting principles remained unchanged compared to the previous year.

Payables and receivables

Payables are included at face value. Receivables are included at face value, less any provision for doubtful accounts. These provisions are determined by individual assessment of the receivables.

Revenue recognition

Interest income and expense are recognized in the income statement based on accrued amounts. Operating expenses are accounted for in the period in which these are incurred. Losses are accounted for in the year in which they are identified.

Cable and Wireless International Finance B.V.,
Amsterdam
Half-year Report September 30, 2011

Foreign currencies

Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at period-end exchange rates. Foreign currency transactions are accounted for at the exchange rates prevailing at the date of the transactions: gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies, are recognized in the income statement. Non-monetary balance sheet items, which are valued at cost and resulting from transactions in foreign currencies, are translated at the rate prevailing on the date of the transaction.

The Company concluded agreements in GBP for both the loans due from shareholder and the bond loan. The Company therefore deems the foreign currency exchange risk not significant.

Financial fixed assets

Financial fixed assets are valued at nominal value.

Corporate income tax

Permanent and temporary differences may exist between the result before taxation as presented in these financial statements and the fiscal result for corporate income tax purposes. Temporary differences between the reporting for tax purposes and the financial statements are recognized as deferred taxes based on the statutory tax rate expected to exist in the future. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are netted. Net deferred tax assets will be included in the balance sheet if actual recovery is assumed possible by the Company's management.

Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that influence the application of principles and the reported values of assets and liabilities and of income and expenditure. The actual results may differ from these estimates. The estimates and the underlying assumptions are constantly assessed. Revisions of estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised and in future periods for which the revision has consequences.

Amsterdam
Half-year Report September 30, 2011

Principles for preparation of the cash flow statement

The cash flow statement is prepared according to the indirect method. The funds in the cash flow statement consist of cash and cash equivalents. Cash equivalents can be considered highly liquid investments. Cash flows in foreign currencies are translated at at the exchange rates prevailing at the date of the transactions.
